COUNCIL CHAMBER,
Augusta, May 6, 1884.

The undersigned, Committee of the Executive Council, appointed in accordance with the following Resolve of the Legislature approved March 14, 1883, hereby "solicit proposals from cities, towns and individuals as an inducement to the location of a new Insane hospital."

"Resolve for the appointment of a committee of the Executive Council to solicit proposals for the location of a new Insane Hospital.

Whereas, The Insane hospital is now full and overflowing with patients, and has been enlarged from time to time, so that it will soon be necessary to establish another insane hospital, therefore,

Resolved, That the governor and council appoint a committee from their own number to solicit proposals from cities, towns and individuals, as an inducement to the location of said hospital, to procure plans of said hospital, and an estimate of the cost of the same, to consider the best method for the State to adopt in its construction, and any other matter legitimately connected therewith, and submit a report upon the whole matter to the next legislature, during the first week of its session."

Such "Proposals" sealed, and with the nature of the contents endorsed on envelopes, will be received up to June 20th, 1884, by the Secretary of State, Augusta, Maine.

Revive Regulate Restore

Everybody knows what "that tired feeling" is [illegible] the human body when the weather grows warmer in the spring. Nearly every one, just as Nature, refreshed from her long winter's rest, is preparing to display her [illegible] beauty and power. The contrast between the changing season, and the condition of the body at the time, makes one feel [illegible] tired, despondent, and miserable. The [illegible] to the need of invigorating [illegible] the system craves, will be [illegible] Hood's Sarsaparilla, the reliable spring medicine and blood purifier.

The children need the aid of a reliable Spring medicine as much as adults. The warm weather has upon them an equally depressing effect, which night vexations and hard study at school aggravate, making them nervous, cross, and fretful. Pimples or scrofulous humors are apt to manifest themselves, adding their sum of the depression. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the one medicine to prevent a boon and blessing to them, relieving the system, expelling all trace of impurity from the blood, toning up the body, and giving to the digestive organs healthy and regular action.

Strengthen the System

"I regard Hood's Sarsaparilla as the most reliable and best Spring medicine. I had tried many others without good results, until I gave Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial, when I was convinced it was superior to all others. Every Spring I take three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and know nothing of the terrible languor so prevalent at that season of the year." MRS. J. M. CARTER, No. 22 Hudson Street, Boston, Mass.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla tones up my system, purifies my blood and seems to make me over." W. J. DRAKE, Corning, N. Y.

"Last Spring my two children were vaccinated. Soon after, they broke all out with running sores, so dreadful I thought I should lose them. Some one spoke to me about Hood's Sarsaparilla as a purifier of the blood. I bought a bottle and gave it to the children. Soon as they began to take it, they began to get better, till it cured them completely; and they have remained so ever since." MRS. C. L. THOMPSON, West Warren, Mass.

Mr. J. N. Ketchum, of Barre, Vt., says that his boy had several very ugly scrofulous sores on his leg. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured him.

Purify the Blood

"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla for some time, and have derived benefit therefrom. It gives me an appetite, and [illegible] the system. I can cheerfully recommend it to all who need a building up and strengthening medicine." JOSEPH W. COOK, Pres't [illegible] Mutual Fire Ins. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

"I make it a rule for years [illegible] a Spring medicine to cleanse my blood and tone up my system. Last Spring Hood's Sarsaparilla gave me a good appetite, and seemed to build me over." E. M. HALE, Lima, Ohio.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla did me a great deal of good. I had no particular disease, but was tired out from overwork, and it toned me up." MRS. G. E. SIMMONS, Cohoes, N. Y.

"About a year ago I commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was all run down, had no appetite, my food would not digest, and I was troubled with nervous debility. On taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I commenced to feel the effects of it at once. I have now taken four bottles and can say I feel like a new man." J. H. McCALL, Rochester, N. Y.

Republican National Convention.

AT CHICAGO, JUNE 3d, 1884.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 12, 1883.

A National Republican Convention will meet at Chicago, Illinois, on Tuesday, June 3d, 1884, at 12 o'clock noon, for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice President at the next election.

The Republican electors of the several States, and all other voters, without regard to past political differences, who are in favor of elevating and dignifying American labor, protecting and extending home industries, giving free popular education to the masses of the people, securing free suffrage and an honest counting of ballots, effectually protecting all human rights in every section of our common country, and who desire to promote friendly feeling and permanent harmony throughout the land by maintaining a National government pledged to these objects and principles, are cordially invited to send from each State four delegates at large, from each Congressional District two delegates, and for each Representative at large two delegates, to the Convention.

The delegates at large shall be chosen by popular delegate State Conventions, called on not less than twenty days' published notice, and held not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days before the time fixed for the meeting of the National Convention.

The Republicans of the various Congressional Districts shall have the option of electing their delegates at separate popular delegate Conventions, called on similar notice, and held in the Congressional Districts at any time within the fifteen days next prior to the meeting of the State Conventions, or by subdivisions of the State Conventions into District Conventions, and such delegates shall be chosen in the latter method if not elected previous to the meeting of the State Conventions. All District delegates shall be accredited by the officers of such District Conventions.

"Two delegates shall be allowed from each Territory and from the District of Columbia, similarly chosen.

"Notices of contests shall be given to the National Committee, accompanied by full printed statements of the grounds of contest, which shall be made public and preference in the order of hearing and determining contests shall be given, by the Convention, according to the dates of the reception of such notices and statements by the National Committee."

STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

Rev. O. D. Patch, pastor of Main street Free Baptist church, Lewiston, resigned, Sunday, to accept the pastorate of the Scranton avenue Free Baptist church, Cleveland, Ohio.

Solon Chase will resume publication of Them Steers next June.

Mrs. Benoit, of Lewiston, who killed her infant, has been committed to the insane hospital.

Wm. Sheehan, of Lewiston, whose legs were cut off in a railroad accident, died in Montreal, Thursday morning.

Aroostook.

John Stewart, an old offender, who had served out a two-months' sentence a year or more ago, for an assault upon a boy in the back woods at Linneus, was arrested on Monday last for stealing a watch from one Carlie, in Monticello, at whose house he had been permitted to stay over night. He was brought to Houlton and lodged to await his trial at the next term of the S. J. Court. He was bound hands and feet with cords, and bore the marks of the hard tussle in resisting the officers who went to arrest him, says the Times.

Mrs. Wood, an evangelist of New Hampshire, has been holding meetings in Washburn the past two weeks which were largely attended, a number having experienced religion.

Cumberland.

The twenty-fifth quarterly convention of the temperance reform clubs of Cumberland county, convened at the Methodist church in Ferry village, Wednesday forenoon, with Lemuel Rolfe, of Deering, in the chair. President, S. H. Wentworth, Saccarappa; 1st Vice President, N. B. Knight, Ferry Village; 2d Vice President, H. Rolfe, Deering; Secretary and Treasurer, R. Ward, North Gorham, were the officers elected.

The Press says: Thursday afternoon, a man, name unknown, accosted a little boy on Congress street and asked him if he had time to take a note to Mr. George H. Weeks, who keeps a grocery store in State street Square. The boy assented and carried the note to Mr. Weeks. Upon opening the note it proved to be a check for $15 accompanied by a request, purporting to come from Mrs. E. B. McKenney, one of his customers, that he would cash it. Mr. Weeks, however, instead of cashing the check, sent his clerk to Mrs. McKenney to ascertain if the check was made out by her; but she said that she knew nothing about it, though during the day she had seen a suspicious looking man prowling around the house. A search was made for the fraud but he could not be found.

Franklin.

Prof. Charles F. Warner and Mr. A. W. Pottle, who were so severely burned by sulphuric acid, at the Normal School building, some weeks ago, have now so far recovered from their injuries as to be at their work again.

Department Commander Williams has appointed Mr. F. N. Harris, of Appleton Post, Farmington, Aide-de-Camp on his staff, and Mr. Nelson Gould, of Appleton Post, has received his commission as Deputy State Inspector.

Capt. C. W. Keyes, editor of the Farmington Chronicle, has accepted an invitation to deliver the Memorial day address at New Portland. Capt. Keyes was obliged to decline invitations to address Fessenden Post of Turner, and Gill Post of Chesterville.

Kennebec.

Capt. John S. Snow died, Saturday, in Hallowell, of Bright's disease, at the age of forty-four years. He served during the war in the First Maine Battery. He has held various city offices in Hallowell, and was a member of the Maine House of Representatives in 1874.

The Kennebec Journal learns that some Gardiner capitalists are talking of forming a stock company to purchase the woollen mill property on Dam No. 2, and setting it in operation equipped with the most improved machinery.

A committee has been appointed to solicit funds for the purpose of building and furnishing a schoolhouse at Oak Grove, Vassalboro, in place of the one destroyed by fire a little over a year ago. It is decided to raise $3,000. None of the subscriptions to be paid until the whole sum is pledged.

Knox.

Capt. Wm. P. Hurley, of Rockland, has purchased a part of a valuable lime rock quarry near Morse's Corner, and work in the same, which has been suspended for several years, has been recommended.

Lincoln.

Mrs. Mary Dering, of the North Village, Jefferson, recently fell while descending the shed stairs, and fractured her shoulder so badly that a splinter of the bone protruded from the flesh. Her arm was also broken in two places. As she was an aged lady it is feared the accident may result fatally.

Oxford.

At a late meeting of the citizens of Norway, it was voted that $700 be appropriated towards the payment of the writing and printing of a history of the town. A committee of three, consisting of Gen. George L. Beal, Henry Upton, Esq., and Marcus Brooks, Esq., was raised to secure a suitable person to gather the materials and write the proposed book. The committee selected Dr. Lapham, of Augusta, and have contracted with him to prepare the history. He will commence work immediately, and the book will be completed in season for Norway's centennial in 1886.

Waldo.

The Belfast Age report the following: Some time in January last, at Swanville, a Mr. Evans that has charge of the farm owned by the late Charles Abbott, missed some sawed timber from the place. He procured a search warrant and several premises were searched. Since the snow has gone off, Mr. Harden, in going past the Abbott place, saw the same timber lying in the same place it occupied before it was missed and in a few days from that time the timber was put into the Abbott barn and covered up with hay by some persons unknown.

The next meeting of Waldo County Medical Association will be held at Belfast, May 6th, with the following programme: Papers on "The Germ Theory," by Dr. E. A. Porter; "Reflex Action," by Dr. J. Craig; "Facts and Dressings in Fractures," by Dr. E. Abbott. Alternate, "Eclampsia," by Dr. H. H. Johnson, "Chorea in the Puerperal State," by Dr. S. W. Johnson.

York.

The famous old Sewall house at Dunstan's Corner, Scarboro, better known in the old days as the Dannell stage tavern, has been torn down by its present owner, Mr. C. F. Moulton, preparatory to building a stable. During demolition several coppers were found in a very good state of preservation bearing date of 1724, 1777 and 1782, the latter being a one-cent coin bearing insignia of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

The staging built for shingling Mrs. Gooding's hotel in Alfred, gave way, Wednesday night, just as the workmen were ready to leave, and S. S. Williams, house carpenter, Fred Whitcher, the hired man, and Mrs. Gooding's stepson, Eddie, fell twenty-five feet to the ground and all were supposed killed for a few minutes. Mr. Williams had a shop axe, chisel, fore plane and screw driver in his hand. No bones were broken, and it is hoped he is not hurt seriously. Eddie Gooding had one bone of the left wrist broken, and Whitcher was badly sprained, but it is thought all will be out in a few days. The bracket which held the staging was evidently fastened to a rotten board, and all three happened to be at the same point when ready to leave. It was a narrow escape. Mr. Whitcher was carried to his home at Lyman, Thursday morning.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot.

The undersigned administrator of the estate of Mary A. Averill, late of Oldtown, deceased, intestate, respectfully represents that there remains in his hands on the settlement of his second account of administration of the estate of said deceased, made at a Probate Court, held at Bangor, within and for said County, on the last Tuesday of March, A. D. 1884, property not necessary for the payment of debts and expenses of administration, to the amount of Three hundred fifty seven dollars and eighty five cents, which sum, less the expense of these proceedings, remains to be distributed among the persons whose names, residences, and relationship to the intestate are as follows:

Edmund Worden, Halifax, Vt., brother; Gilbert Worden, South Halifax, Vt., Daniel S. Worden, South Halifax, Vt., Lucius Worden, Green River, Vt., Ansel Worden, Heath, Mass., Marcus L. Williams, Leyden, Mass., nephews; Lucy Morse, Whitingham, Vt., Mary W. Strickland, Winchester, N. H., nieces; Lawrence French, Green River, Vt., grandnephew; Ida M. Rose, Brattleboro, Vt., Eva French, Green River, Vt., grand nieces.

Wherefore your petitioner prays that distribution of said balance may be ordered among said persons and such others as may be proved to be entitled thereto, and the share of each determined.

ROBERT AVERILL.

Blaine Far Ahead.

The attitude of some of the anti-Blaine papers suggests the thought that they are waging war against Mr. Blaine at the expense of their better judgment, as in nearly every instance when they come out squarely and announce just what they [illegible] want in a candidate it is found that Blaine comes nearer than any other man in the country in his ability to fill the requirements.

During the early stage of the canvass for delegates these papers laid particular stress upon the announcement that the days of machine politics were gone by and that the Republican candidate for the Presidency must be a man who was satisfactory to the people, instead of the politicians, and could command their hearty support. Very well, this being true, we contend that never in the history of this country has there been such a unanimous or enthusiastic uprising of the people in their support of a private citizen as that which has just swept from Maine to California [illegible] the nomination of Hon. James G. Blaine. Out of public life, having voluntarily retired from the high positions which he has honored in the past, Mr. Blaine was not and is not a candidate in the [illegible] that he has raised voice or pen in his own behalf. On the other hand he has persistently declined to talk or correspond with his most intimate friends on the subject of his candidacy. But his strength lies with the people who have [illegible] his candidacy in hand, and in spite of the opposition of the office holders, many of whom naturally give their support to the Administration, as well as the [illegible] politicians, they have borne it through the canvass triumphantly and will present his name to the National Convention with a following much stronger in numbers than that of any other candidate. The following that should have great weight in the convention from the very fact that it is backed by an overwhelming sentiment of the people, whom it is justly claimed should have a deciding voice in the matter.

The selection of delegates has now been completed and that Mr. Blaine is the first choice of the Republicans is shown in the fact that in nearly every state that contributes Republican votes to the Electoral College a majority of the delegates are his own supporters, and the latest revision of [illegible] places him within 32 of a nomination on the first ballot.

The loudly proclaimed statement that Mr. Blaine would be a weak candidate in New York was most emphatically disproved at the recent convention in that State, when he only fell five votes short of a majority over the combined strength of Arthur and Edmunds. The latter it will be remembered is the candidate of the very men who are endeavoring to prevent Mr. Blaine's nomination because he "couldn't carry New York," but who were only able to give Mr. Edmunds a following of about [illegible] in the State Convention, which, when compared with the 243 men who were sent to the convention to represent the people of New York who want Mr. Blaine for President, shows very plainly which is the stronger candidate of the two in that State. Another fact in Mr. Blaine's favor is that his strength in the state of New York comes from those counties that give Republican majorities, while the following of the other gentlemen comes very largely from sections that are always Democratic. Thus we say that Mr. Blaine is the candidate for whom the people want to vote. His enemies have tried to weaken him through the medium of slander, but it has proved a veritable boomerang for them, as he is stronger with the masses than ever before, and if the National Convention follows the advice of the so called anti-Blaine press and heeds the voice of the people rather than that of the politicians or any faction of the party, James G. Blaine will be the standard bearer in the coming contest, which under his leadership will result in a most glorious Republican victory.

"The boss speller of Congress," says the Cleveland Leader's Washington correspondent, "is an Illinois Congressman, a prominent Democrat, and the chairman of one of the leading committees of this Congress. A few weeks ago, in speaking of West Point, he characterized it as entirely too classical and asserted that there was not a young man in his district who could pass its entrance examinations. Congressman Belford, of Colorado, is in the same committee and recently, a question being sprung between the two gentlemen, Belford said he did not propose to be dictated to by a man who spelled Rhode Island with a small 'r,' and left out the 'h.' Mr. Belford has made the same remark on the floor when engaged in discussion with the above named Congressman, and it is high time that the public know to what he refers. It is to the following sentence, written by the above Congressman. There is hardly a correctly spelled word in it, and even the name is misspelled. 'Col.,' I suppose means colleague. I give it verbatim: 'My col. is pared with Mr. Baloo of road Iland. If he were here I would vote.'"

It seems that Mr. Eaton, of Connecticut, has not only stirred up the free traders, but has created great excitement among the fire eaters of the South. In the course of his recent speech when reminded that Benedict Arnold was a "Yankee traitor," he remarked with great force: "Arnold was the only Yankee that ever became a traitor, I think I might go into several other states and find plenty of men who were traitors." This was a home thrust at the men occupying seats in Congress who a few years ago were fighting to destroy the Government of which they are now a part, and they insist that Mr. Eaton must withdraw his "offensive language." In all probability Mr. Eaton will refuse to stultify himself in any such manner, and the Boston Post will amuse itself by issuing a proclamation declaring that Mr. Eaton can no longer act in the councils of the Democratic party.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

All the State and Territorial Delegates Chosen.

MR. BLAINE LEADS ALL THE OTHER CANDIDATES—HIS PROBABLE STRENGTH ON THE FIRST BALLOT.

[New York Tribune.]

The thirty-eight States, the eight Territories and the District of Columbia have all elected their delegates to the National Republican Convention. The Convention will meet in Chicago "at 12 o'clock noon," one month from to-day, June 3. The aggregate number of delegates chosen by the States is 802, distributed as follows:

Alabama,	20	Mississippi,	18
Arkansas,	14	Missouri,	32
California,	16	Nebraska,	10
Colorado,	6	Nevada,	6
Connecticut,	12	New Hampshire	8
Delaware,	6	New Jersey,	18
Florida,	8	New York,	72
Georgia,	24	North Carolina,	22
Illinois,	44	Ohio,	46
Indiana,	30	Oregon,	6
Iowa,	26	Pennsylvania,	60
Kansas,	18	Rhode Island,	8
Kentucky,	26	South Carolina,	18
Louisiana,	16	Tennessee,	24
Maine,	12	Texas,	26
Maryland,	16	Vermont,	8
Massachusetts,	28	Virginia,	24
Michigan,	26	West Virginia	12
Minnesota,	14	Wisconsin,	22

The remaining 18 votes are distributed as follows:

Arizona,	2	Utah,	2
Dakota,	2	Washington,	2
Idaho,	2	Wyoming,	2
Montana,	2	District of Columbia,	2
New Mexico,	2

Distributing the State vote geographically, gives this result:

6 Eastern States,	76
4 Middle States,	156
15 Southern States,	300
13 Western States,	270

This last table seems to recall attention to the demand that has arisen in many quarters looking to a new plan of representation in National Conventions. Under the present plan the Southern States in which the party is weakest are given over one-third of the entire number of votes in the convention, while if representation was based upon the Republican vote of each state they would have less than 200, and the rest of the states over 600. Several plans have been submitted to the National Committee since the last National Convention met—notably one prepared by Senator Frye, of Maine—looking to a more equitable representation. But the committee declined to make any change. The matter will doubtless be brought to the attention of the coming convention.

On Monday last the Tribune published a series of tables showing Mr. Blaine's vote on the first ballot in the National Conventions of 1876 and 1880, and his probable corresponding vote in the convention of this year. It appeared from these figures that in the States in which the battle is to be won or lost next fall, his support has increased nearly tenfold since 1876, and nearly doubled itself since 1880. The estimate of his strength in the convention of next month gave him 358 votes, or within 53 votes of a majority. Since these figures were printed delegates-at-large and district delegates have been chosen by the following States and Territories: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, Florida, Kentucky, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Colorado, Texas, Oregon, California, Nevada, Wisconsin, Wyoming and Utah. And the result of these numerous elections shows that Mr. Blaine's strength was under rather than over estimated in our calculation.

We allowed him 12 votes in Maryland. Thirteen are figured up for him. We allowed him 6 in Virginia. These he will have in any event, while if the "straight-outs" are admitted to the convention he will probably be supported by the entire delegation—24. We allowed him 28 in Iowa, but Iowa gives him all she has—26. We allowed him 7 in Minnesota. But a dispatch from St. Paul states that it is generally admitted that he will have 10. We allowed him 8 in Texas. The latest estimate gives him 18. We allowed him 10 in Wisconsin. The latest estimate gives him 0. The rest of our figures may safely be allowed to stand as printed on Monday. Making the corrections indicated, the revised table will stand as follows:

States.		States.
Alabama,	8	New Jersey,	14
Arkansas,	14	New York,	29
California,	16	North Carolina,	4
Colorado,	6	Ohio,	23
Delaware,	1	Oregon,	6
Florida,	4	Pennsylvania,	48
Indiana,	10	Texas,	18
Iowa,	26	Virginia,	6
Kansas,	12	West Virginia,	10
Kentucky,	8	Wisconsin,	0
Maryland,	13
Michigan,	15	Territories.
Minnesota,	10
Mississippi	2	Arizona,	2
Missouri,	10	New Mexico,	2
Nebraska,	9	Dakota,	2
Nevada,	6	Washington,	2
New England (including Maine,)	20	Total	379

Note, in the case the "straightout" delegation is admitted from Virginia the vote of that State instead of being 6 for Mr. Blaine is likely to be 24. That would bring his total vote up to 397. A majority of the whole number of votes to be cast by the convention is 411. So according to our revised table Mr. Blaine is within 32 of a nomination on the first ballot, without the straightout vote or within 14 of a nomination in case he receives it.

In his letter to the Boston Journal on the Republican convention in this State "C. L. M." writes: "If the Hon. James G. Blaine shall be nominated by the Chicago Convention there will undoubtedly be the largest Republican majority in this State that has been recorded for many years. The nomination of Maine's adopted son was perhaps the most prominent topic discussed by the delegates to the Bangor convention, and during the sessions on Wednesday the mention of his name each time called forth either applause or cheers. Always strong among the people of Maine, the ex-Secretary, had he been present, could but have felt gratified with the general desire to see him nominated at Chicago. Members of the Democratic and Greenback parties are fully aware of this fact, and say that with Blaine's nomination there will be little use for the opposition to do much in the State campaign, for Republican success is as certain as fate. At present the opposition elements are so divided that their strength is greatly reduced; with two Greenback tickets, one Prohibitory and one Democratic there seems little probability of any candidate securing the opposition vote cast two years ago, and the probable Republican majority has already been estimated by members of the opposition as high as 10,000."

Another manufacture has so far advanced, under the favoring influence of protective duties, that the United States has therein few rivals. Twenty years ago, the manufacture of silk in this country amounted to little; eighty-three per cent. of the silk goods used of all kinds was imported. Now it appears from official records that only forty-five per cent. of the goods used is imported, that the value of silk goods manufactured exceeds $40,000,000, against $25,000,000 in Great Britain; and that only two countries surpass the United States in this branch of industry—France, with yearly products worth $[illegible],000,000, and Germany with $45,000,000.

Mr. McKinley, of Ohio, says that Blaine's name is received with greater enthusiasm in that State than that of any other man.

The Democrats of Massachusetts and one wing of the Greenbackers of Maine have "fused" on Butler as a candidate for President.

The "horizontalists" in Congress are seriously alarmed for the safety of their pet scheme and as several offers to compromise have been rejected by their opponents it is thought that the proposition which has been submitted to Mr. Morrison by several of his friends, to recommit the bill with the understanding that it will not be reported again this season, will be adopted.

BILIOUSNESS.

Bilious symptoms invariably arise from indigestion, such as furred tongue, vomiting of bile, giddiness, sick headache, irregular bowels. The liver secretes the bile and acts like a filter or sieve to cleanse impurities of the blood. By irregularity in its action or suspensions of its functions, the bile is liable to overflow into the blood, causing jaundice, sallow complexion, yellow eyes, bilious diarrhœa, a languid, weary feeling and many other distressing symptoms. Biliousness may be properly termed an affection of the liver, and can be thoroughly cured by the grand regulator of the liver and biliary organs, BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS. Act upon the stomach, bowels and liver, making healthy bile and pure blood, and opens the culverts and sluiceways for the outlet of disease. Sold everywhere, and guaranteed to cure.

Against the Future.

"It is unquestionably the duty of every man to provide while he yet lives, for his own." We would say that it is no less his duty to provide, as far as he can, against their being left penniless in the event of his death. Indeed, between these two duties there is no general distinction, for life assurance makes the one as much a matter of current expenditure as the other. One part of his income can be devoted to the necessities of the present, another can be stored up, by means of life assurance, to provide against the future, and thus he may be able to do the whole of his duty toward his family instead of (as is often the case) only one-half of it.

IT IS ABOUT TIME

For the annual copying fiend to be abroad in the land, with a finely touched up picture as a sample, but when your picture returns it don't pan out anywhere near as you expected, but there seems to be no other resource than to take it, as the original will not be surrendered until the price is paid. THE
Henry F. Miller PIANOS

The most successful Piano for the past twenty years.
[Musical Courier.]
New York, March 5th, 1884.
Within a few weeks the most accomplished amateur pianiste in Boston, the daughter of the Lieutenant-Governor of the State, a lady of remarkable judgment, who cannot be influenced, determined to change one of her several grand pianos (a Chickering she had been using for some time,) and her inclination was to exchange it for a new one of the same manufacture. The grand piano she examined did not satisfy her demands as an artist, and she visited the warerooms of Henry F. Miller, where she at once found a grand piano that combined all the elements—tone, touch, singing quality, power, etc.—which are necessary in a high grade instrument, and she purchased it in exchange for the Chickering grand.

This is not an ordinary case. In fact it looms up as one of the few extraordinary cases, where independent judgment is enabled to exercise its complete sway, and it thus points out the tendency of events. The Millers are aiming at an artistic elevation. Only patronage for the highest grade of workmanship is solicited. Elegant catalogue will be sent on application.

TESTIMONIALS AND MERIT.

Less than three months ago,
BELL'S SARSAPARILLA
was first brought to public notice. It has been advertised only in a limited manner, yet the sale in that time has reached to nearly 6,000 BOTTLES,
and is constantly increasing. This great demand has come for the following reasons: Those who have tried the medicine have not been disappointed; no other sarsaparilla ever offered here has been so publicly endorsed as a Blood and Liver medicine of rare merit over their own signatures, by well-known citizens, as BELL'S SARSAPARILLA; the production of a remedy of the size and value of BELL'S SARSAPARILLA, at 50 cents per bottle, while all others are sold for $1.00, is a new idea, and has proved a successful one. From every town where it has been introduced comes the same response: "It is the best and most popular selling spring medicine we keep."

The following from WM. F. MANN & CO. is but a sample of the whole.

To A. M. Robinson, Jr.—Our retail trade for Bell's Sarsaparilla exceeds any other patent medicine with the exception of Warner's Safe Cure, and our jobbing trade for it is very good indeed.
WM. E. MANN & CO.

A WONDERFUL CURE.

BANGOR, April 25, 84.
For the past three years, Rheumatism and Neuralgia have affected both of my arms so that at times I could not dress myself or sleep at night from pain. I was recommended to take Bell's Sarsaparilla by one who had been helped by it. I have done so and am now well. My arms are perfectly free from pain and lameness, and I owe all to this medicine.

EVERY FAMILY SHOULD USE
DAGGETT'S PATENT BAKING PAN

Health, Luxury and Domestic Economy.
UNEQUALLED FOR BAKING BREAD, CAKE, PUDDINGS, POULTRY, MEATS, FISH, &c.

These pans are constructed strictly on scientific principles, have been thoroughly tested by chemists and practical men and women in this country, and pronounced by them one of the most important discoveries of the nineteenth century. Any article of food cooked in it retains all its sweetness, flavor, nourishment, etc., better than any other means of cooking. [illegible] pays for itself many times a year by increasing the amount of nutriment by cooking [illegible] ten per cent., while a much larger percentage is saved in baking meats, [illegible] adapted. In cooking in these Pans less heat is required, as the steam is [illegible] as from an open pan, thus retaining the heat as well as the nutritious gases. [illegible] In Roasting Meats, Turkeys, etc., in any stove or range [illegible] and turning at least one fourth of the weight and the richest flavor is lost [illegible] ing off in steam, but by using this Pan this loss is all avoided. Being confined [illegible] arising from what you are roasting is absorbed back again and acts as a continual basting, making it more juicy, rich and tender, giving it that fine flavor it ought to have and can get [illegible] No attention is required after you put the Pan in the oven. Should it be left in over time there need be no fear of its burning, as the steam held will keep [illegible]

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot:

The undersigned, Trustee under the will of Joseph C. Stevens, late of Lancaster in the County of Worcester and State of Massachusetts, deceased, respectfully represents that said Stevens died possessed of certain unproductive real estate situated in said County of Penobscot, hereinafter described, and that in order to carry out the provisions in said will, it is necessary that said real estate should be sold. Wherefore your petitioner prays your Honor to grant him a license to sell, at public or private sale, and convey all the unproductive real estate of said deceased, situated in said County of Penobscot, and is thus described to wit: Lots numbered 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33 and 34, situated in said Bangor, on the southeasterly side of Fremont street according to plan made by N. Coleman for Alvah Osgood, Sept. 5, 1836, and recorded in Penobscot Registry of Deeds, Plan Book No. [illegible], page 20, and lot No. one (1) on said plan, and situated on the northeasterly side of Ohio street, and being 50 feet on said street and 160 feet deep—and to apply the proceeds of the sale of said real estate to carry out the provisions of said will.
A. G. WAKEFIELD, Trustee.
April 29, 1884.

STATE OF MAINE.

Penobscot, ss. — Court of Probate, April Term, 1884.

Upon the foregoing petition, Ordered, that said petitioner give public notice to all persons interested, by causing a copy of the petition, and this order thereon, to be published three weeks successively in the Bangor Daily Whig and Courier, a newspaper published in Bangor, in said County, that they may appear at a Court of Probate for said County, to be held at the Probate Office in said Bangor, on the last Tuesday in May next, at ten of the clock in the forenoon, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

This left Malley [illegible] except an application to the Supreme Court of the United States where a decision might not be reached in [illegible] years. The present compromise [illegible] the matter.

WORK OF BURGLARS.

A House Broken Open.

CLAREMONT, N. H., May 4. Burglars entered the house of Lemuel N. Ide, Saturday night. They secured a gold watch, pocket book containing checks, valuable papers, and a small sum of money. No clue to the thieves.

JERSEY CATTLE.

Large Sale in the South.

NASHVILLE, May 4. The annual sale of the Tennessee Jersey Breeders' Association, Saturday, was the largest ever held in the South. The best butter strains were represented. Total amount of sales $18,575. The average price for 43 females was $332, and for five bulls $120. The sale is considered very satisfactory.

DESTRUCTIVE GALE.

A Loss of About $100,000.

BURLINGTON, Vt., May 3. The damage by last night's gale will amount to $100,000. The piers at the north end of the harbor, about two miles long, are nearly all more or less injured and about 700 feet of the breakwater was swept away. The waves rolled 30 feet high.

The Largest Loser.

BURLINGTON, Vt., May 4. The principal loser by the recent gale is the Vermont Central Railroad Company which owns most of the dock property on the north end of the harbor. The principal loss was caused by tearing off the timbers. The damage to the breakwater is $30,000, to docks $50,000 or $60,000.

FROM WASHINGTON.

News About the Capital.

The Tariff Bill

WASHINGTON, May 3. The motion to strike out the enacting clause of the Morrison tariff bill will be made in the House Tuesday. The Republicans say if they can secure Democratic votes by allowing the Democrats to offer it they will agree to the motion being made by the Democrats. Both sides declare the vote on the question to be close and each side is confident of success. The Republicans are counting on gaining as many as 40 Democrats and losing 4 or 5 of their own number. The friends of the bill say the number of Democrats who will vote with the Republicans will not be so large as the latter anticipate. They count on a majority of from five to eight.

Veterans' Excursion.

A programme has been made out for an excursion of the members of the First Army Corps to the battle fields of Virginia the 12th inst. Gen. Grant, President Arthur and a large number of Congressmen are expected to take part in the excursion. The first day will be devoted to the battle field of Fredericksburg, the second to Chancellorsville and the third to the scene of conflict in the Wilderness. The history of the several battles and the movements of the troops engaged in them will be explained by Gens. Newton, Hunt, Slocum, Longstreet, Dickinson and other distinguished officers who took part.

River and Harbor Bill

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 3. The House Committee on Rivers and Harbors finished the river and harbor appropriation bill with the understanding, however, that it may be changed at the final meeting Monday morning. The total bill as completed appropriates $12,441,000. There are no appropriations for creeks and [illegible] of the appropriations asked for 105 were rejected. In the way of legislation a general provision was inserted to prevent the obstruction of navigation by bridges.

FIRE RECORD.

Fire Started by a Locomotive.

NEW BEDFORD, May 4. Fire was set by a spark from a locomotive to-day, a short distance north of the road leading from Bridgewater to East Freetown. Gangs of men were sent from here and Taunton and by three o'clock 300 men were at work and before four the fire was under control. Five acres were burned over.

A Conflagration Averted

RICHFORD, Vt., May 3. What threatened to be a serious fire broke out here to-day in Joseph Wheeler's carriage shop. A high wind was blowing and the sparks flew in every direction, igniting many buildings. An engine was brought from St. Albans and the entire population turned out and succeeded in confining the flames to Wheeler's shop. Loss over $2,000.

CAPE COD SHIP CANAL.

Work Soon to be Prosecuted Night and Day—The Largest Dredge in the World

BOSTON, May 3. An official trial and inspection was made at Sandwich to-day of the workings of the mammoth dredge on the Cape Cod Ship Canal, by engineers, members of the legislature and others, under the direction of the contractor L. A. Lockwood and E. C. Carrigan, of the company counsel. They pronounced it highly satisfactory. The dredge is said to be the largest in the world, having an excavating capacity of 900 cubic yards per hour, has 175 horse power engine, carries the deposit half a mile and is equipped with electric lights for night work. Two other dredges will soon be added and the work prosecuted night and day. By the new location just surveyed the canal will be eight miles, costing $1,000,000 per mile. The soundings completed show the excavation to be [illegible] By the charter the work must be completed in four years [illegible] for the heaviest vessels to pass. The engineers [illegible] the current [illegible] less than four miles per hour.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE

A Rough Experience

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 3. The schooner Wm. P. Hood, which arrived in this port to-day in tow, had a remarkable experience at sea. She sailed from Baltimore the 24th of March with coal for Providence, and when two days out on the 26th she experienced a tempest which carried away her rigging and topmast and left her at the mercy of the waves. During the blow she scud before the gale, and when the storm abated the vessel was 800 miles east of Bermuda Island. April 2nd the man at the wheel, Christian Holberg, of Norway, was swept overboard and was drowned, and later James Kelley, of Massachusetts, 33 years old, the cook, was thrown against the cabin and received injuries from which he died. The heroism of the captain and crew of the rescuing Boston bound bark, Harry Warner, of Portland, is highly spoken of by Capt. Davis of the Hood.

Steamer Burned.

BALTIMORE, May 4. The steamer E. S. Ford, belonging to the Chester River Steamboat Company, burned at her wharf at Chestertown this morning. The crew barely escaped. The Ford was built in 1877 at a cost of $75,000.

Loss of a Barge and Two Men.

NEW HAVEN, May 3. The barge President, one of three in tow for here, was struck by a squall last night, off Bridgeport, and Capt. F. Bauer and one sailor were lost. The barge, which was consigned to E. S. Wheeler & Co., of New Haven, and loaded with tin plate and wire, was also lost. The loss is $15,000, and was fully insured. Captain Bauer belonged in New Haven, and leaves a widow and three children.

SHOT BY A Burglar

A Desperate Experience.

BROCKTON, May 4. At Cochesett, last night, about eleven o'clock, Barney Dunbar, an aged farmer, was aroused from sleep and saw a man leaving the bedroom with articles of clothing. Dunbar jumped for the burglar but was met with a shot from a revolver and subsequently knocked down with a club. The burglar then fired five more shots one of which grazed the scalp, another pierced the ear, and another was buried in his neck. Mr. West, a lodger in the second story, came to the rescue and was received with a shot which caused a severe wound in the forehead. The burglar or burglars made a hasty retreat by way of the cellar.

The physicians could not extract the bullet in the neck which is considered dangerous. Suspicion is placed on John Harris, a former employe, who, it is alleged, made threats against Dunbar, and to-day he was taken, together with Walter Burt, a negro, who is thought to be an accomplice, both being unable to give satisfactory account of themselves. The burglar succeeded in getting about $10.

THE WEATHER.

WAR DEP'T OFFICE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER, Washington, D. C., May 5—1 a. m.

Indications.

For New England—Increasing cloudiness and rain; winds backing to southerly; stationary temperature.

FOREST FIRES.

Great Destruction of Property.

One Thousand Persons Homeless.

The Loss Over $1,000,000.

EMPORIUM, Pa., May 3. Forest fires yesterday swept over 50,000 acres, destroying as far as ascertained 10 large mills and some thirty other buildings, besides an immense amount of lumber and logs. The loss on mills, lumber, etc., will amount to $100,000, but the damage to standing timber cannot be estimated.

A Thousand Persons Homeless—Loss Over a $1,000,000

HOUTZDALE, Pa., May 4. The known loss by the fire at Brisbin amounts to $380,000 and the total loss is estimated at $1,030,000. Of this amount Hoover, Hughes & Co. lose $150,000. The number of families homeless and destitute is about 1,000, most of whom are suffering for the necessaries of life. Supplies are coming in slowly and the demand is great. Anything that can be utilized in the shape of provisions, clothing or money will be gladly accepted. Goods for the sufferers will be transported free of charge by the Pennsylvania Railroad.

About 150 employes of Hoover, Hughes & Co. are thrown out of employment. In addition the 140 at John Maurice's Mt. Vernon colliery and 170 at R. H. Powell & Co.'s colliery. But one death has occurred thus far, that of Mrs. Donovan, who was burned to death. The insurance is much less than the losses. Subscriptions have been liberally given in the neighboring towns and 2,000 persons have been provided with provisions. The sufferers are mainly poor miners who were at work at the mines when their houses were laid in ashes.

In Other Places.

MATAWAN, N. J., May 3. South of here fires in the pines are still burning, apparently with greater vigor than ever. The damage cannot be estimated. At Marlboro the fires broke out [illegible] The woods at Browntown having been started and the farmers are fighting the flames. The loss there is placed at $10,000. Between 4,000 and 5,000 acres are devastated. The fire, it is asserted, originated from careless burning of brush by one of the wealthy farmers and the losers by it will try and hold him responsible for the loss. The huckleberry crop, which brought hundreds of dollars to the poor in this vicinity, is entirely destroyed. The smoke in the streets is again getting thick.

Blotted Out.

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., May 4. Gilman's Station was almost blotted out of existence by Friday's fire. Losses $150,000, most of the property destroyed being that of Mr. Gilman. At an early hour Friday morning Alfred Gilman was informed that a disastrous fire was raging four miles west of Gilman's town at the town of [illegible] and was requested to send a number of men to prevent the spread of the flames. Mr. Gilman sent a number of employes to help fight the fire. All day the men fought the fire but were unable to check it. By 2 p. m. it had driven every one before it and arrived within two miles of Gilman's Station. About this time a strong wind set in and the fire raged with renewed violence and traveling at the rate of three miles an hour it compelled those who were fighting it to run for their lives.

Climbing the mountain which overlooks Gilman's Station on the west it descended the other side and in less than half an hour what was once the busiest hamlet on the railroad was reduced to ashes, not a stick of timber being left to mark the spot. So rapidly did the fire spread after reaching Gilman's it burned so fast that the inhabitants did not have time to save any property. The smoke and heat was so stifling it was all the people could do to save their lives. They abandoned everything. On the west side of the railroad track where the fire entered the town were the steam saw mill, Gilman's store, the Post Office and depot, two comfortable dwellings, school house, ice house, storehouse for leather and large pile of lumber. On the East side were a large planing mill, extensive tannery, two blacksmith shops, three large sheds used for storing hides.

Mr. Gilman's house, large boarding house and two other houses and two large barns were also burned. All this property was destroyed within half an hour. In all 18 buildings were destroyed, 2,000,000 feet of lumber and four flat cars of the Erie Railroad which were lying on the siding opposite the store and loading with lumber, all were owned by Mr. Gilman. The destruction of the store left the inhabitants in a bad position, as they are now unable to purchase clothing or provisions. One hundred and fifty men are out of employment.

Fortunate Rain

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., May 4. Rain has been falling all the afternoon extinguishing the fires in this vicinity.

WILKESBARRE, May 4. A moderate rain fell in this section during the entire day extinguishing the forest fires on the mountains along the line of the Lehigh Valley Railroad from Bear Creek to White Haven.

MISSING STEAMER.

The State of Florida

LONDON, May 4. It is no longer doubted that the ship which signalled the City of Rome saved some if not all those on board the State of Florida. It is calculated the disaster occurred on the 18th ult., at which period the wind was blowing from the east. The boats would drift until rescued. They must have been launched because they were so fixed that they would not otherwise have floated. The fact that the other boats were without gear is regarded favorably as indicating that the rescuing ship secured the oars and gear and allowed the boats to drift away. One of the boats is life boat No. 1, the other is a small new boat and not numbered.

The owners are of the opinion that the State of Florida struck an iceberg, as the captain of the State of Pennsylvania reports ice in the region in which she is supposed to have been at the time of the disaster.

The dynamite theory is not received with any favor whatever. An investigation shows that the cargo was shipped by two well known firms and all small packages on board have been accounted for. The detectives who were reported as awaiting the arrival of the State of Florida were seeking to arrest an embezzler who was supposed to be on board. The next news concerning the fate of the missing vessel is awaited from America where it is supposed those who were rescued will be landed. The captain of the City of Rome explains that when the ship displayed signals there was little or no wind and the flags showed badly and were difficult to read. The City of Rome passed the ship rapidly without replying to the signals.

NOT A SUCCESSFUL LAUNCH

A Panic Stricken Party.

NEW YORK, May 4. Two hundred ladies and gentlemen were on board Mr. Norman L. Munro's steam yacht Norma, when she was launched in Brooklyn, yesterday. Immediately on entering the water the vessel heeled over to starboard till her plankshear was level with the water. Instantly a scene of the wildest confusion occurred on deck. Ladies shrieked and one or two fainted. All who could do so, however, struggled up to the port rail and clung to the bulwarks netting.

The stern of the yacht slowly swung up stream, and as she came head to the tide the weight of her passengers righted her and again sent her down on the port side. Once more the panic stricken crowd ran up the deck to the starboard rail and once more she rolled over on that side, this time going completely on her beam end, her rail being submerged and keel visible to the crowd on shore. In this last careening it seemed almost certain that she would go over entirely, but she hung finally when nearly over and did not again right herself. Several tugs went to the rescue and all of the company were taken off in safety. Relieved of her load the yacht partially righted and was towed to the dock.

DR. M. SOUVIELLE,

LATE SURGEON OF THE FRENCH ARMY.

The well known Parisian throat and lung specialist will be at the AMERICAN HOUSE in this city for a few days, commencing Monday, May 5th, where he can be consulted by any person suffering from Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness, Asthma, Bronchitis, Weak Lungs, Consumption and all throat and lung diseases. Dr. Souvielle is well known, not only on this side of the Atlantic, but in France, England, Germany and other European countries in connection with his invention, the Spirometer, for cure of Chronic Diseases of the air passages, as well as by his many acts of kindness and aid to the suffering poor. The following notices will show the support his instruments and treatment has received in Europe:

[From the Berlin Medical Gazette.]

Dr. Souvielle by his invention of the Spirometer, undoubtedly discovered the best method for curing chronic diseases of the air passages, made more terrible by the failure of physicians. Every physician should have one.

[From [illegible] Medical Journal.]

Having [illegible] the exchanges of Dr. Souvielle's Spirometer [illegible] invited [illegible] to investigate it ourselves, we visited the hall of the Art Association and through the kindness of Dr. Souvielle gave it a thorough examination. The doctor has undoubtedly struck the key note in his beautiful invention, and conferred upon suffering humanity a boon of priceless value.

[From the French Republic.]

In this, the afternoon of the nineteenth century when science and art are making such mighty strides, it is pleasing to note the hope which science has received by the invention of Dr. Souvielle's Paris Spirometer, which is so constructed that medication is conveyed direct to the lungs and throat, bringing those heretofore dangerous diseases under the complete control of the operator.

The following is from the Montreal Daily Gazette, Canada, Nov. 8, 1880:

THROAT AND LUNG DISEASES.

There recently arrived in this city, from Paris, Dr. Souvielle, bringing with him his invention called the Spirometer for the cure of such troublesome and hitherto well nigh incurable diseases as asthma, bronchitis, catarrh and the like, either chronic or transient. The Doctor has fixed upon Phillips Square as his residence, where we paid him a visit on Saturday last. Intellectual, evidently well skilled in anatomy and physiology, a linguist capable of speaking five languages and possessing apparently thorough knowledge of all the phases and details of the various respiratory diseases from practical observation, Dr. Souvielle proceeded to explain the modus operandi of his invention, the Spirometer. It is ingenious, yet simple, and after hearing the doctor's explanations the treatment—that of inhalation—seems very sensible. Certain medications are placed in the instrument, and are hence inhaled by the sufferer. These inhalations are naturally carried direct to the organs affected by the disease, and of course, prove in this manner by far the most effective. In Europe this mode of treatment is now thoroughly recognized and practised, and we learn that since his arrival here Dr. Souvielle has treated most successfully several of our own citizens. Persons suffering with such diseases as [illegible] this article should not hesitate to visit the doctor, who gladly explains his method free of any charge. He deserves success.

The Boston Herald speaks of Dr. Souvielle as "one of the most eminent throat and lung specialists of the present time." Dr. Souvielle's instruments are now universally adopted in all the leading hospitals of France and England, and acknowledged the only treatment that will radically cure these diseases, and they are now being introduced into all the principal cities in America. Five institutes are now established in Canada and the United States. We would advise all our readers suffering from any of these diseases, made a specialty of, to consult Dr. Souvielle before he leaves our city. He gives a standing invitation to the profession as well as sufferers to try his Spirometer and appliances free. Patients unable to visit him should write to the Boston office, 212 Columbus Avenue, for information.

On account of many patients suffering from terrible diseases who are unable to pay for professional services (upon presenting a certificate to that effect from any recognized city official or clergyman) Dr. Souvielle will make no charge for the Spirometer.

VISITED BY OVER 600 PHYSICIANS AND SUFFERERS.

In St. John, N. B., recently Dr. M. Souvielle, late Surgeon of the French army, the well known Parisian Throat and Lung Specialist, was visited by over 600 physicians and sufferers, using his invention the Spirometer for the treatment of Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness, Asthma, Bronchitis, Weak Lungs, Consumption and all throat and lung diseases. Persons unable to visit Dr. Souvielle while here can be successfully treated by addressing him at his head office, 212 Columbus Avenue, Boston, Mass. Full particulars sent on application. Instruments and remedies can be expressed to any address. Physicians and sufferers are invited to try his Spirometer and appliances free. Dr. Souvielle will be in Bangor at the American House, for a few days. Patients suffering from any of the diseases he makes a specialty of should not fail to consult him before he leaves.

The same parties will then construct a line between Portland and Portsmouth, N. H.

PERSONAL. The position of State Inspector of Steamers to which last week Capt. William Flowers of this city was appointed and confirmed, was formerly held by Capt. Joseph W. Dyer of Portland in connection with the office of U. S. Inspector of Steamers for this District but has been vacant since the death of Capt. Dyer some months since. Capt. Flowers' duties require him to inspect all steamers in the interior waters of Maine, and there are some thirty of these, the number increasing each year.

WELCOME NEWS. A despatch received in this city yesterday announced the welcome news that the steamship Germanic with Rev. Dr. Field, Mrs. Field, Mrs. Hall and Miss Philbrook, as passengers arrived safely at her dock at 7.30 that morning. It is expected the party will reach Bangor about the middle of the week and that Dr. Field will preach in his pulpit next Sabbath. A reception is to be tendered the returned pastor by the members of his society in the vestry of the Central Church one week from to-night.

MAINE RIVERS. A Washington despatch says: Following are the amounts appropriated for Maine rivers and harbors: The new works to be begun in New England are the extension of the breakwater at the mouth of the Saco river, the Cape Ann harbor of refuge and the deepening of the river above Providence to give navigation five miles up the river. Portland harbor $30,000; Rockland harbor $20,000; Moosabec harbor $10,000; Lubec channel $10,000; Saco river $12,000.

A REMARKABLE RECORD. The schooner Avon, Capt. J. G. Park, of Searsport, lay in our port near the Maine Central dock. She is a craft of 127 tons and has run on the Penobscot for a long series of years having enjoyed quite a remarkable record. Capt. Park declares that in the twenty two years he has been in charge of her she has never touched bottom excepting when the tide has receded while at anchor, and she has never had as much as a stick of timber lost out of her deck load. Rare good fortune has been vouchsafed her in her trips.

REFORMERS' MEETING. There was a good sized audience in City Hall Sunday at the Reform Club meeting. President Ayer conducted the services. Mrs. Wescott, of the crusade read the scriptures; Rev. Mr. Prince offered prayer. President Ayer, in his opening remarks, said he was glad after a short absence to see so many come together in the interest of Temperance. He was followed by Bro. Richardson of the club. The next speaker was Mr. J. G. Clark and he was listened to attentively as he showed the necessity of living Temperance lives and he wanted his influence to be known and felt for the right. The President next called Rev. Mr. Prince who presided over the first crusade meeting that was held in Bangor, and in a feeling manner he pictured some of the evils of intemperance which came under his personal knowledge and in an eloquent appeal asked all to take hold and do their duty as citizens and parents to banish intemperance. Mr. I. R. Clark was called by the President, and in response showed in a convincing manner the necessity of all working for temperance. Rev. Mr. Besse, was the next speaker and deprecated that so much rum was sold in Bangor; while he was made unhappy by the evil as it now existed yet he would ever by his voice and labor, be a true temperance man. The last speaker was Brother Hanover, of the club who presented the pledge. The music as usual was of a high order. The selections, "Father Hear Us," "Don't Forget your pledge Brother," "Mister why don't you Stop Selling," and "Oh Touch it not the Sparkling Cup," were finely rendered.

BREWER. A good audience gathered at Town Hall, Brewer, last Saturday evening, on which occasion Prof. W. A. Rice gave humorous readings and a lecture on the order of United Fellowship. The meeting was under the auspices of Golden Sheaf Council and Geo. S. Nickerson, Esq., presided. Prof. Rice's readings, given at the opening of the meeting, had the usual effect of convulsing the audience with laughter. After several selections, he presented an able exposition of the United Fellowship, which was listened to with the closest attention, and which occupied nearly an hour. [illegible] W. Donigan, Esq., and Hon. J. R. Clark followed with brief and eloquent remarks. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speakers and members of the order were much gratified with the success of this, the first public meeting held in this vicinity. Prof. Rice will give a lecture in Town Hall, Carmel, Tuesday evening the 6th inst.

OBITUARY

Walter Brown, Esq.

Walter Brown, Esq., one of our oldest and most respected citizens, passed peacefully away yesterday afternoon between the hours of five and six, at his residence on Broadway at the ripe old age of 82 years.

Mr. Brown was born at [illegible], New Hampshire, March 10, 1802, and on Feb. 11th, 1823, he was married to Sarah Quimby, of Sandwich, N. H., by Rev. Samuel Hidden. [illegible] two years after marriage he [illegible] farming in [illegible]. He then came to the Penobscot Valley and soon after established himself in trade at Milo, where he remained till 1830. That year he moved to Bangor, where he has ever since resided.

During a period of over 40 years Mr. Brown was strictly engaged in mercantile affairs in our city, first in general groceries and afterwards in lumber, coal and shipping and later in the wholesale flour and grain trade. He retired wholly from these pursuits in 1871, but retained his connection with the Traders' Bank of Bangor, till it closed its affairs by the surrender of its charter in 1874, having served as its President from 1853, the date of its organization, a period of more than twenty-five years. For several years past, he has been in feeble and failing health.

At the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, which was celebrated at Bangor Feb. 11, 1873, both were in full strength and vigor, and many pleasant and interesting incidents connected with it are yet fresh in the minds of their friends and acquaintances. During the days of his health and activity he gave no little time, interest and faithful service to many of the different humane organizations and movements of our city. The Children's Home and the Home for Aged Women recognize him as a faithful friend and benefactor. As the will be kindly remembered by many with whom he was a sympathizing worker in other enterprises. He had no taste or desire for public office but having consented one year [illegible] to act in the board of Aldermen he declined the honor of [illegible] in 1860 [illegible] served in the Common Council.

He was for more than thirty years a member of the Central Congregational church having transferred his connection to it from the Hammond street church on bringing [illegible] the west [illegible]. He was interested and active in the work of erecting the edifice of the [illegible] church, and was a large hearted and liberal handed townsman in all the public charities and religious enterprises which commended themselves to his judgment and his sympathies.

In business he was diligent, exact, methodical, prompt and intelligent. In his social relations he was genial, kind and hospitable, an affectionate husband and a warm hearted indulgent father, a judicious counsellor and friend. He was a man of marked and superior executive ability, which with his sound financial [illegible] and intelligence abundantly qualified him for the position he so long filled as President of the Traders' Bank. And to him no doubt in large part as well as to the ability and wisdom of the associate directors [illegible] as they were by the skill, integrity and devotion of our respected fellow citizen Ebenezer Trask, Esq.,—its cashier during all those years—was that bank indebted for its standing, faithful administration, high reputation, prosperous career and successful close.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown have had three children. Their eldest son, Mr. Franklin B. Brown, a [illegible] respected citizen of Chicago, died while living there October 23d, 1870. The second son, Mr. Edwin Lee Brown, is a well known and influential citizen of the same place (Chicago) where he has resided twenty five years. The third child, Mary, is the wife of Hon. H. C. Goodenow, of this city. During their married life of more than 61 years Mr. and Mrs. Brown have been called to mourn the death of but one child and one grandchild out of a family of eighteen direct descendants.

The date of the funeral will be hereafter announced.

Mrs. Olive J. McDonald

On Friday last, Mrs. Olive J. McDonald died at Waldoboro aged in the vicinity of eighty years. The deceased was the wife of the late Hon. John McDonald who will be well remembered in this city where he was at one time Judge of our municipal court. After the death of Mr. McDonald about fifteen years ago, she moved to Waldoboro where she has since lived with her daughter, the wife of Hon. Isaac Reed. She also has a son, Mr. Wm. McDonald who lives in Portland. The deceased was a sister of Dr. Geo. P. [illegible] of this city.

AMUSEMENTS

Oliver Doud Byron

This evening, at the Opera House, the Byron combination will present the sensational drama, "Across the Continent." Mr. Byron has always drawn crowded houses here, and to-night will doubtless prove no exception to the rule.

John L. Stoddard

"The Castle Bordered Rhine" is the fascinating place toward which Mr. Stoddard proposes to conduct his hearers at the Opera House, to-morrow evening. Speaking of this lecture at its first presentation the Chicago Times said:

"In point of grace and finish of style and in the singular felicity of choice of points to be dwelt upon and illustrated—a characteristic method of all his lectures,—the new effort is the peer of any of his other lectures. In one particular Mr. Stoddard departs from his past custom and gives a number of practical hints to travelers, a feature which will be peculiarly prized by the fortunate people who hope some day to pass over the ground themselves."

Notes.

"The Black Flag" will be seen at the Opera House one week from to-night.

Every electrician should see Byron do the great telegraph scene in "Across the Continent."

The Oliver Doud Byron Combination has arrived in the city and the members are stopping at the Bangor House and Penobscot Exchange.

Agricultural.

Let any farmer look around in this vicinity, and he will find the most prosperous farmers are those who take most pains in keeping their fields and fence corners clear of weeds, and their buildings painted and in good repair.

In an address before the Maryland Horticultural Society, William Saunders, Superintendent of Grounds and Gardens, Agricultural Department, Washington, [illegible] said: "The blight of apple and [illegible] trees is, in the aggregate, a source of [illegible] loss. I will not discuss the point [illegible] to whether this malady is caused by a [illegible] form of vegetable life, fungi, or by a [illegible] form of insect life, bacteria, but allude [illegible] to mention the fact that no part of a [illegible] covered with lime has ever been affected."

[illegible] is a great deal of [illegible] among [illegible] so much so that there is no need [illegible] more of it by the agricultural press. While some have been [illegible] by trying new kinds of fruit, [illegible] and grain, with fine names and high prices, more have been benefited [illegible] getting something really valuable in advance of their neighbors. There is not [illegible] farmer in any town who was the first to [illegible] a load of the Early Rose potato, who is not to-day [illegible] proud of the fact [illegible] probably [illegible] though he did have to pay a dollar a [illegible] for the seed.

[illegible] Cleveland has approved the bill passed by the New York Legislature for prohibiting the manufacture and sale of [illegible] The language of the provision is as follows: "No person shall manufacture [illegible] of any oleaginous substance or substances, or any compound of [illegible] other than that produced from [illegible] milk or of cream of the [illegible] designed to take the place of butter or cheese produced from [illegible] milk or cream of the [illegible] shall sell or offer for sale the [illegible] Similar legislation is [illegible] every State, and the [illegible] classes should demand its enactment.

[illegible] inquiry made in the city of [illegible] regarding the adulteration of [illegible] oils used in burning [illegible] Sixty-five per cent of a sample [illegible] to be [illegible] with naphtha, which [illegible] is a violent poison and powerful [illegible] The report made by the [illegible] further states that the resulting danger [illegible] of this adulteration is [illegible] the fact that [illegible] is relied on in cases of poisoning [illegible] and that the death of the [illegible] may follow on account of its failure [illegible] In other countries such [illegible] products are swiftly punished, in the United States we are just awaking to the necessity of drastic measures.

[illegible] cattle market at Brighton, [illegible] established at the time of the Revolutionary War, has been closed. It originated [illegible] demand for a supply of provisions [illegible] the American army which encamped [illegible] Cambridge under General Washington. [illegible] the business transacted at the [illegible] of the Brighton corporation [illegible] The sales of cattle for the [illegible] 1845 from this market [illegible] per annum. Its future [illegible] business of this section will be [illegible] between the Watertown live stock [illegible] at the comparatively new yards of the Boston & Albany Railroad Company [illegible] Brighton.

Farmers have frequently been designated the backbone of the country, while the [illegible] of their prosperity depends that of [illegible] of the people. When agricultural products rule low in price, it [illegible] results that other commodities [illegible] cheaper. In prosperous [illegible] it is seen that wheat and corn [illegible] are disposed of at high [illegible] the farmers are generous buyers [illegible] thus stimulated and every one is happy. At present, values of agricultural products rule low, and the effect is quickly [illegible] all branches of business. If the [illegible] were given to [illegible] interests as has been [illegible] manufacturing interests, the nation would [illegible] been immeasurably benefited, and [illegible] pleasant to notice the increased [illegible] given by our national Government [illegible] to agricultural measures.

The Planets for May.

[illegible] of the Providence [illegible] speaking of the planets for May [illegible] that at present all of them are evening [illegible] although Neptune becomes a morning [illegible] on the 10th, and Mercury on the 17th. [illegible] of the planets present any particularly interesting features during the month, except Venus, which on the 2d, at 5 o'clock in the evening, reaches her greatest eastern elongation, when she is 45° 31' east of the sun. Not a second farther can she go, [illegible] invisible chain that binds her to the [illegible] has reached its limit. The fair planet [illegible] from her labors and stands still in [illegible] course, as if conscious of her surpassing loveliness, and willing that observers on this planet should have a chance to [illegible] the fascinating grace of her presence. But she remains not long inactive, [illegible] turns her course and approaches the [illegible] at a far more rapid pace [illegible] she receded from him. Any observer [illegible] see this for himself, for the westward movement of approach to the sun is easily [illegible] from night to night as she threads [illegible] way among the stars. This she will [illegible] until she reaches inferior conjunction [illegible] July, when passing between us and the [illegible] she reappears on his western side as [illegible] morning star, and will be seen no more in the evening sky for 292 days.

Venus will be the loveliest star in the [illegible] through the month of May, [illegible] elongation she turns her steps westward, moving rapidly toward [illegible] and hastening on to her period of greatest brilliancy. She will form a delightful planetary [illegible] for the naked eye, and also for telescopic observation. Seen through the telescope, at elongation or a few days after, [illegible] takes on the aspect of the moon at her [illegible] quarter, half her disc being illumined. [illegible] like the moon she becomes a waning crescent, less and less of her enlightened face being turned toward, but increasing in size as she approaches us, more than enough to counterbalance the lessened light. At the end of the month she has [illegible] reached her culminating point, while her high northern declination adds [illegible] the length of her stay above the horizon, and the favorable conditions for observation.

The May moon fulls on the 9th, at 7 minutes after 11 o'clock in the evening, standard time. On the 21, the day of her [illegible] quarter, she is in conjunction with Mars, and on the 5th with Uranus. She then encounters no planet in her path until the 23d, the day before her change, when she passes near Neptune. On the [illegible] a few hours before new moon, a beautiful phenomenon occurs. At 37 minutes after 1 o'clock in the morning, the moon is in closer conjunction with Mercury, passing [illegible] north. Moon and planet [illegible] then below the horizon, and of course [illegible] visible. If they were above the horizon and were not too near the sun to be seen, [illegible] waning moon, diminished to a slender thread of silver light, and the sparkling [illegible] almost touching her bright [illegible] would form a lovely picture. In some localities, lying between the limiting parallels of 35° north and 25° south latitude, Mercury is occulted by the moon.

The waning moon, after paying her respects to the morning stars Neptune and Mercury in the eastern sky, reappears in the western sky as the new moon that one never tires of seeing. On the 25th, she is in conjunction with Saturn, the first planet in her pathway. On the 27th, she pays her respects to Venus, but as she is [illegible] south, the conjunction will hardly be noticed. On the 28th she is at her nearest point to Jupiter, and on the 30th to Mars. The conjunctions with Saturn, Venus, Jupiter and Mars occur between new moon and the first quarter, showing how near the planets are together, and the order of their distance from the sun.

Stories on the Road.

Commercial Travelers a Veritable Inn—Something to Put in a Gripsack.

"Gentlemen, I almost envy you the books in your [illegible] your experience of the world, your knowledge of business, the changing sights you see, and all that, you know."

This [illegible] expressed regret fell from the lips of an elderly pleasure tourist, last August, and was addressed to a couple of commercial travelers [illegible] the porch of the [illegible] Hotel, St. Louis, Mo.

"Yes," replied [illegible] New York representative of the profession, "a drummer isn't without his pleasures, but he runs his risks, too, outside the chances of railroad collisions and steamboat explosions."

"What risks, for instance?"

"This, for instance," said Mr. W. D. [illegible] who was then traveling for an Eastern house, and is known [illegible] in all parts of the country. "The risk—which, indeed, amounts almost to a certainty—of getting the dyspepsia from perpetual change of diet and water, and from having no fixed hours for eating and sleeping. I myself was an example. Two years, for flat fortnight [illegible]"

"No discount on your digestion?" broke in a Chicago dry goods traveler, lighting his cigar afresh.

"Not a quarter per cent. But I had to give up traveling for a while. [illegible] dyspepsia [illegible] my temper. Finally I came across an advertisement of PARKER'S TONIC. I tried it and it fixed me up to perfection. This is something on earth, in my opinion, equal to it as a cure for dyspepsia."

To Any One in Bangor in POOR HEALTH,

I SAY: READ THIS.

I have from time to time printed testimonials from well-known and reliable residents of Bangor, who bear witness as to the wonderful power of

Brown's Sarsaparilla

over all forms of Kidney, Liver, Blood, and Stomach difficulties. So confident am I of the ability of this preparation to cure all diseases of these organs, such as Pain across Back, Bearing down Pain, Constipation, Jaundice, Sick Headache, Sickness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Salt Rheum, Canker, Cancer, Scrofula, and particularly all diseases peculiar to the female sex, that I agree to refund money in each and every case where does not do all claimed.

Brown's Sarsaparilla

There is no better general corrective, no better invigorating, enlivening Spring Tonic.

Your attention is called to the following statement from one of our County officials whose reliability is beyond question. Respectfully yours,

ARA WARREN,
Wholesale and Retail Druggist.

Our County Treasurer's Statement.

B. B. Thomas, Esq., Treasurer of the County of Penobscot, is well known to all as a thoroughly reliable gentleman. When about twenty-one years of age Mr. Thomas lost by accident, his right arm. Later in life he was thrown from a wagon by a vicious horse, and still later, while painting his house, the ladder broke down, seriously injuring his hip. Few men are blessed with constitutions that could stand such a series of accidents, and it is no wonder that Mr. Thomas, now 65 years of age, should feel at times out of sorts. He was recommended to try and purchased one bottle. As Mr. Thomas resides in Hampden, while his office is at the Court House in Bangor, he divided the medicine, leaving a portion in each place, and took it faithfully. Mr. Thomas says that owing to Brown's Sarsaparilla, and nothing else, he has been healed of a Liver trouble, and says the action of the stomach which has been poor, is now in perfect order—says he feels better than for years; says his friends mention the fact that he is looking better this spring than for years, and he tells them Brown's Sarsaparilla did it. Mr. Thomas will substantiate any of the above statements if you call on him. We will only add that we cannot hope for a more convincing, reliable testimony than the one Mr. Thomas gives, and are more than ever convinced that Brown's Sarsaparilla is far superior to any known article for diseases of the Blood, Kidneys and Liver. It revives the vitality and is a gentle, yet powerful stimulant of the various organs of the body.

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE

KNOW THYSELF.

A Great Medical Work on Manhood,

Exhausted Vitality, Nervous and Physical Debility, Premature Decline in man, and the untold miseries resulting from indiscretion. A book for every man, young, middle-aged, and old. It contains 125 prescriptions for all acute and chronic diseases, each one of which is invaluable. So found by the Author, whose experience for 23 years is such as probably never before fell to the lot of any physician. 300 pages, bound in beautiful French muslin, embossed covers, full gilt, guaranteed to be a finer work in every sense—mechanical, literary, and professional—than any other work sold in this country for $2.50, or the money will be refunded in every instance. Price only $1.00 by mail, post-paid. Illustrative sample 6 cents. Send now. Gold medal awarded the author by the National Medical Association, to the officers of which he refers.

This book should be read by the young for instruction, and by the afflicted for relief. It will benefit all.—London Lancet.

There is no member of society to whom this book will not be useful, whether youth, parent, guardian, instructor or clergyman.—Argonaut.

Address the Peabody Medical Institute, or Dr. W. H. Parker, No. 4 Bulfinch Street, Boston, Mass., who may be consulted on all diseases requiring skill and experience. Chronic and obstinate diseases that have baffled the skill of all other physicians a specialty. Such treated successfully without an instance of failure.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
late Commissioner of Patents."

BOSTON, October 19, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: you procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business in your line, and advise others to employ you.

Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

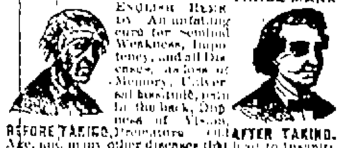
GRAY'S SPECIFIC MEDICINE.



TRADE MARK The Great English Remedy. An unfailing cure for Seminal Weakness, Impotency, and all Diseases that follow as a sequence of Self-Abuse; as loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pain in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, and many other diseases that lead to Insanity or Consumption and a Premature Grave. TRADE MARK

BEFORE TAKING. AFTER TAKING.

It is full of advertisements to refund money, when druggists from whom the medicine is bought do not refund, but refer you to the manufacturers, and the requirements are such that they are seldom, if ever, complied with. See their written guarantee. A trial of one single package of Gray's Specific will convince the most skeptical of its real merits.

On account of counterfeits we have adopted the Yellow Wrapper, the only genuine.

Full particulars in our pamphlet, which we desire to send free by mail to every one. The Specific Medicine is sold by all druggists at $1 per package, or six packages for $5, or will be sent free by mail on receipt of the money, by addressing
